Rojone's policies

One of Rojone's key values is 'respect for people'. As stated in its Human Rights Policy, Rojone does not tolerate slavery, human trafficking, forced or child labour or child exploitation. In addition to the Human Rights Policy, Rojone has various other policies which assist in managing human rights, including the following:

- Code of Conduct
- Compliance and Ethics
- Work health and Safety
- Training
- Vendor Management

Due diligence processes for slavery and human trafficking

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we have in place systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

Supplier adherence to our values

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. To ensure all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values we have in place a supply chain compliance programme. The General Manager of Rojone has the responsibility for ensuring that this policy is enforced, and that the companies measures actively combat slavery and human trafficking.

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide intend to provide training to our staff. We also require require] our business partners to provide training to their staff and suppliers and providers.
